

<h1>Year 7</h1> <h2>Religious Studies</h2>
1 Define common Key terms in RS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have described using religious terminology. You have described at least two different ideas using religious terminology. You have used example to help explain religious terminology. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have explained by giving examples using religious terminology. You have explained two ideas by giving examples using religious terminology. You have fully developed at least two explained ideas using religious terminology. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have explained using examples two different ideas using religious terminology. You have explained two contrasting ideas using religious terminology. You have a fully developed response with at least two differing viewpoints using religious terminology.
2 Evaluation of two Christian festivals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have described two Christian festivals. You have described what happens during the celebrations. You have explained which festival you think is more important to Christians with a reason. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have explained what each festival celebrates. You have explained which festival you think is more important to Christians with at least one reason. You have fully developed each point which explains which festival you think is more important to Christians. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have fully developed two explanations of the importance of each festival. You have stated which festival you think is the most important with at least one reason. You have compared each festival and reached a logical conclusion as to which festival is more important.
3 Knowledge: Christianity Key terms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You are able to recognise and define some key terms. You are able to recall key terms for definitions. You are able to describe Christian beliefs using key terms fluently. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have explained by giving examples using religious terminology. You have explained two ideas by giving examples using religious terminology. You have full developed at least two explained ideas using religious terminology. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have explained using examples two different ideas using religious terminology. You have explained two contrasting ideas using religious terminology. You have a fully developed response with at least two differing viewpoints using religious terminology.
4 Evaluation of the five pillars of Islam	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have described two different opinions. You have used key terms to explain two different opinions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have explained by giving examples one opinion. You have explained three different views by giving examples to fully explain all ideas. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have compared how Muslims show commitment to religion to how I have shown commitment to my beliefs/ activities. You have compared two different pillars of Islam and reached a conclusion. You have reached a logical conclusion in you written work.
5 Knowledge and Evaluation: Judaism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have described two different opinions. You have used key terms to explain two different opinions. You have used examples to explain at least one opinion. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have explained two ideas by giving examples one opinion. You have explained three different views by giving examples to fully explain all ideas. You have reached a logical conclusion in your written work. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have compared how Muslims show commitment to religion to how I have shown commitment to my beliefs/ activities. You have compared two different pillars of Islam and reached a conclusion. You have compared ideas in Judaism to other religions studied this year in your wirtten work.